About Portland Audubon

Portland Audubon is committed to building a diverse and inclusive environment, reflecting the diversity of our community in its board, staff, volunteers, and members; ensuring its internal culture, business practices, and programs are welcoming and advance its diversity goals; and empowering people to make positive changes in their community and environment. Portland Audubon’s Nature Store Sales Clerk is expected to serve diverse audiences and help advance Portland Audubon’s diversity strategies. More background on our diversity efforts can be found at audubonportland.org/about.

The Nature Store is a thriving local business, generating nearly three-quarter million dollars in sales annually, carrying a suite of products designed for birding and nature enthusiasts of all ages, abilities, and backgrounds. The Nature Store is the first place that visitors and members go to learn about Portland Audubon’s facilities and nature sanctuaries. The Nature Store is dedicated to providing a welcoming space to anyone who walks in, and aims to carry products that inspire all visitors to see themselves loving nature. The Nature Store also works closely with local artists, authors, and crafters to carry a variety of goods made in Portland and the Pacific Northwest.

Portland Audubon has been a leading voice in conservation for over a century. Through conservation advocacy, environmental education, and wildlife rehabilitation, we promote the understanding, enjoyment, and protection of native birds, other wildlife and their habitats. We are located in a 172-acre wildlife sanctuary in Forest Park, just minutes from downtown Portland.

Preferred Skills & Experience

Studies have shown that women and minorities often don’t apply for positions where they don’t meet all of the preferred skills and experience. We recognize that there are many different paths, experiences, and less traditional backgrounds that add value to one’s work, and encourage applicants to apply even if they do not have all of the preferred skills.

- Some previous retail or customer service experience.
- Interest in and some knowledge of Pacific Northwest natural history.
- Record of working toward racial equity, diversity, and an inclusive culture within an organization
- Recognition of the history of inequity and racism in the environmental movement.
- Proficiency in another language in addition to English.
- Demonstrated familiarity with PC-based computers and Microsoft Office Suite.
- Point-of-sale system experience preferred.
- Energetic and detail-oriented.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Ability to perform a variety of tasks while maintaining a friendly composure in a sometimes hectic environment.
Special Considerations/Restrictions of the Position

- Must be able to work a flexible schedule, including possible weekends and evening hours during events.
- The position can be a physically demanding job. Ability to lift and/or move up to 40lbs and move product up and down stairs.
- Occasionally work at off-site events.

Diversity Statement

Portland Audubon believes that inspiring all people to love and protect nature is best achieved when we embrace diversity as a value and practice. In the same way an ecosystem needs many types of plants and wildlife, an organization thrives when it includes a diversity of people and perspectives. We recognize that inequities are widespread and create gaps between our present reality and our aspirations. Audubon is committed to:

- Reflecting the diversity of the community in our board, staff, volunteers, and members.
- Ensuring our internal culture, business practices, and programs are welcoming and advance our diversity goals.
- Empowering people to make positive changes in their community and environment.

Portland Audubon has nearly completed four years of a five-year strategic plan. A core priority moving forward is to infuse equity, inclusion, and diversity (EID) into all of the goals and work of the organization. This position will play an important role in achieving the organization's EID goals through engagement with staff, board members, donors, volunteers and the public. We recognize that in order to serve diverse communities we must also have diversity represented in our staff. Applicants of color, immigrants, and other underserved persons are encouraged to apply.

Portland Audubon is committed to building a diverse and inclusive environment, reflecting the diversity of our community in its board, staff, volunteers, and members; ensuring its internal culture, business practices, and programs are welcoming and advance its diversity goals; and empowering staff to make positive changes in their environment and in Portland Audubon’s culture.

Portland Audubon does not discriminate on the basis of race; creed; sex; sexual orientation; gender identity; age; religion; marital status; national origin or ancestry; political affiliation; citizenship; lawful immigration status; or mental, physical or medical disability; Veteran status; or liability for service in the United States Armed Forces.

This position is expected to serve diverse audiences and help advance Portland Audubon’s diversity strategies. More background on our diversity efforts can be found at audubonportland.org/about.
