

SUPPLY LIST

Plein Air Watercolor Painting with Ronna Fujisawa

Please bring a lunch, snacks, water, drinks, all your painting supplies.

You may bring a portable chair if that is comfortable for you.

Other optional items for setting up: a folding chair, blanket, watercolor easel, folding tv table.

Warm clothes, rain protection, layer in case it gets hot. Brimmed hat, sunscreen, insect repellent

This is the easel I use, but not required: <https://enpleinairpro.com/collections/packages/products/traveler-series-watercolor-package>

MATERIALS | please bring all materials to every class

Basic watercolor Paint: Bring what you have. I do recommend Daniel Smith, M.Graham, Holbein, Windsor Newton... tubes 15ml. (I use mostly Daniel Smith)

Colors: Hansa Yellow Light, Naples Yellow, Raw Sienna, Quinacridone gold, Quinacridone magenta, Alizarin Crimson, Sap Green, Phthalo Green, Green Gold, Ultramarine Blue, Cerulean Blue, Cobalt Blue, Phthalo Blue, Raw Umber, Burnt Umber, Burnt Sienna, Transparent Pyrrol Orange, Pyrrol Orange, Carbazole Purple, Paynes Gray

Additional Colors (opt) Azo Yellow, Rich Green Gold, Viridian Green, Shadow Green, Cascade Green, Shadow Green, Cobalt Teal, Manganese Blue, Moon Glow, Van Dyke Brown, Neutral Tint

Brushes: Ive been using PRINCETON Velvetouch brushes these days and I love them. Other brands are also fine. #8 round, #3 round, #0, 5/8 angular shader, 3/4" angular shader, 3/4" oval wash (cats tongue), 1" angle flat wash, round wash brush, 1.5" flat brush (favorite)

*Expensive sable brushes are delightful, but synthetic fiber is just fine.

Paper: Good quality COLD PRESS watercolor paper 140lbs, *Arches or *Saunders brand is best. Full sheets, 22x30" can be folded and torn into smaller sizes (found in paper drawers in bulk at Blick), or a COLD PRESS watercolor block or pad of paper at least 11x14"

Lightweight board (foam core or gator board cut to paper size) (I like to have a few foam core boards cut 11x15 to tape my paper to and work on several paintings at a time)

Palette: Please get a a palette for your paints that has a large mixing area and a lid.

I've been using this palette because it holds 33 colors and very portable size. Mijello Fusion Airtight/Leakproof Palettes, 33 wells

Miscellaneous: #2 pencils, Dry Media, Mixed Media, artist or blue painters tape 1", water pot, paper towels, clean sponge, saran wrap, eraser white sponge, toothbrush, Qtips, scissors, small spray bottle, salt, sketch book, scrap watercolor paper

